

Ubu Roi
A Squall + Frenzy Production

Macbeth meets Hamlet meets Punch and Judy

Squall + Frenzy proudly presents Ubu Roi, a joyfully crude, anarchic, political play which follows the surreal sex-capades/killing sprees of Pere Ubu - A.K.A Ubu Roi - A.K.A King Shit.

A daring, post-pantomime punk adaptation of this classic symbolist masterpiece, the grandstanding villainy of Pere Ubu is more relevant than ever in an age of celebrity politicians, where injustice is just as good as justice. Watch 'King Shit' throw anyone and everyone who stands in his way "into the pit" (including you).

“This is a real ensemble production, with six actors working together seamlessly to create a host of characters” Strat Mastoris, fringereview.co.uk

Resident playwright, Isabel Sensier, has given Alfred Jarry's 1896 play a daring new adaptation for our modern times. Directed by Ada Dodds with Chris Gates, this adaptation premiered with a regional tour in 2016, followed by a sell out run at Brighton's Marlborough Theatre.

In 2017, Squall + Frenzy took the play to Bred in the Bone's Dreams Before Dawn festival in Paris, before returning home to sell out at The Brunswick Theatre in Hove. In 2018, Squall + Frenzy hope to tour Ubu Roi throughout the UK and then, if it's still there, the world.

“Squall + Frenzy's production is certainly highly, highly recommended.” Strat Mastoris, fringereview.co.uk

Contact Details:

Name: Isabel Sensier

Tel: 07500554005

Email: info@squallandfrenzy.org

Website: <https://www.squallandfrenzy.org/>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/squallandfrenzy/>

Twitter: @SquallandFrenzy

Press Ticket Requests: boxoffice@otherplacebrighton.co.uk - 01273 987516

Venue Details: The Warren, St Peter's Church North, York Place, Brighton BN1 4GU

7th, 27th and 28th of May 20:00 – 21:00